

KEEP 'EM FLYING WARBIRDS

SEPTEMBER 2005

VOL. 28, NO. 6

contents

EAA's B-17G Fuddy Duddy was busy throughout AirVenture 2005 bringing the Flying Fortress flight experience to hundreds of Warbird enthusiasts.

NICK VERONICO

in this issue

12 Corsairs and Buckeyes Under Restoration

With Furies in the Wings

Projectmeister Duane Doyle
by Jack Morrissey

16 AirVenture 2005

28 Former Spanish Air/Sea Rescue Flying Boat at EAA AirVenture

Flying yacht makes round-the-world charity tour
by Nicholas A. Veronico

33 Thunder Over Michigan

Yankee Air Museum rebounds from tragic fire
by Dave Lineinger

43 Civil Air Patrol Cadets at EAA AirVenture

Did you know they pay their own way?
by Jack Morrissey

46 EAA Warbirds of America, NATA Report On T-6/SNJ Issue

columns

- |    |                                     |    |                                    |
|----|-------------------------------------|----|------------------------------------|
| 2  | CO's Cockpit                        | 45 | Supply Depot                       |
| 3  | Mail Call                           | 46 | Mystery Warbirdby Mark Laatsch |
| 4  | Warbird News                        | 48 | Calendar of Events                 |
| 10 | The Way It Wasby Robert F. Dorr |    |                                    |

Front Cover/Centerspread

Dream Flight: Photo plane pilot Taigh Ramey in Richard Harrigan's Beech 18. Photo by Paul Koskela.

Back Cover

Donna-Mite sits at AirVenture in the Mustang corral. Sadly, Richard James and P-51D, N6327T, Donna-Mite, was lost on July 26, 2005, near Malone, Wisconsin. Photo by Jim Dunn.