

WARBIRDS contents

MARCH 2003 • VOL. 26, NO. 2

in this issue

- 5 Sun 'n Fun Preview
- 12 Resurrection of a Loach
John Roxbury's OH-6A/James Busha
- 17 Safety Is Our Battle
An Introduction to the March 2003 Safety Issue
Fred Womack
- 18 Aviate, Navigate, Communicate
A military pilot learns the differences Between a C-172 and a T-28
Capt. Daniel Hayenga (USAF)
- 21 The Overhead Break
The FAA comments on the 360-degree overhead approach
- 22 The Narrow Path to Good Judgment
The aviator as a professional/Lt. J.G. Ralph Richter Jr.
- 24 Man and Machine
Pilot and airplane fingered in fatal L-39 crash/Gordon Gilbert
- 27 Turning Turtle
An overturned aircraft requires quick action to save the pilot
- 28 Midair!
Tips for avoiding collisions in the air
- 34 Defensive Driving . . . Defensive Flying
The potential for human error always exists
J.S.T. Ragman
- 36 The Errant Parachute
T-34 pilot learns that a parachute must be restrained like a passenger
- 37 Pilot Statements
- 38 Bugsmasher
Engine-out in an SMB-5
Cmdr. Charles "GII" Erb
- 41 Warbird Parking Signals

“no amount of showmanship can ever prove your skill, but one mistake at any time can prove you a fool”

ON THE COVERS

Front Cover: John Roxbury pilots his award-winning OH-6 Loach during EAA AirVenture Oshkosh 2002. Photo by James Busha, taken from Sam Tabor's L-5 Sentinel.

Back Cover: Bob Odegaard (WB #6269) restored his Goodyear F2G-ID Super Corsair, "Race #57," to its 1949 Cleveland Air Race colors. Photo by Robert Arthur.

columns

- 2 From the CO's Cockpit/Michael Schloss
- 3 Mail Call
- 4 Warbird News
- 10 The Way It Was/Robert F. Dorr

- 42 Mystery Warbird/Mark Laatsch
- 44 Squadron News/Jack Morrissey
- 47 Supply Depot
- 48 Calendar of Events